CHAPTER III

TAX CREDIT

- 6. Apportionment of tax credit .- Where a dealer has purchased goods intended to be used for the purposes specified in sub-section (1) of section 9 and the goods are subsequently used fully or partly for other purposes as specified in sub-section (4) of section 9 or the goods or goods manufactured out of such goods are exported from Delhi by way of transfer, the tax credit claimed shall be reduced under section 10, in the following manner:-
- (i) in case commodity-wise accounts are maintained by the dealer clearly correlating use of goods for making sales under sub-section (1) of section 9 and for other purposes, the tax credit shall be reduced by the amount of input tax paid on the purchases used for such other purposes.
  - (ii) in case commodity-wise accounts are maintained by the dealer clearly correlating use of goods for making sales referred in sub-section (1) of section 9 and for transfer of goods or goods manufactured out of such goods, the tax credit shall be reduced in the manner specified in rule 7.
  - (iii) in case commodity-wise accounts are not maintained by the dealer clearly correlating use of goods for making sales referred to in clause (i) above, the reduction of tax credit shall be calculated on the basis of the purchase price of such goods immediately preceding their use for other purposes or their fair market value, whichever is higher.
  - (iv) in case commodity-wise accounts are not maintained by the dealer clearly correlating use of goods for making sales referred to in clause (ii) above, the reduction of tax credit shall be calculated on the basis of the purchase price of such goods immediately preceding to their transfer or their fair market value, whichever is higher, and the input tax credit shall be reduced in the manner specified in rule 7.

7. Reduction of tax credit .- (1) For the purposes of sub-section (6) of section 9 and sub-section (3) of section 10, the tax credit shall be reduced by the following prescribed percentages:-
- (a) in the case of goods specified in the Second Schedule 100 percent
  - (b) in the case of goods specified in the Third Schedule 100 percent
  - (c) in the case of goods specified in the Fourth Schedule 20 percent
  - (d) in the case of any other goods specified in clause (e) 32 percent of sub-section (1) of section 4
- (2) Where a dealer has transferred any goods in the circumstances specified under sub-section (6) of section 9 and has made a reduction of tax credit by the prescribed percentage, he shall be entitled to claim the tax credit so reduced when he brings such goods back into Delhi for sale on which tax is payable under section 3 or for sale in the course of inter-state trade or commerce or for sale outside Delhi or for sale in the course of exports out of the territory of India, subject to the condition that the goods brought back to Delhi are the same goods as originally transferred.
- (3) Where any goods or goods manufactured out of such goods are lost or destroyed, the dealer shall not be eligible to claim tax credit on such goods and the credit taken in any earlier tax period shall be reversed in the tax period in which goods are claimed to have been lost or destroyed.
- (4) For the purpose of sub-section (9) of section 9, the prescribed percentage of reduction of tax credit shall be 4 percent.

- 7A. Adjustment to tax.- Where adjustment of tax arises under clause (e) of sub-section (1) of section 8 by reason of the whole or part of the price owed by the buyer for the purchase of goods having been written off by the dealer as bad debt, the dealer shall make such adjustment to the extent of the tax on the price written off as bad debt provided such price has been written off in his books of accounts and the price so written off has also been claimed by the dealer as deduction under section 36 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (43 of 1961):

Provided that where the price so written off relates to the sale of goods taxable at different rates of tax specified under section 4, the adjustment shall be made by allocating the price so written off to various amounts outstanding in the following order:-

- (i) any interest amount due and outstanding;

- (ii) sale price of any exempted goods;
- (iii) sale price of goods taxable at the rate of 1 percent;
- (iv) sale price of goods taxable at the rate of 4 percent;
- (v) sale price of goods taxable at the rate of 12.5 percent; and
- (vi) sale price of goods taxable at the rate of 20 percent

Provided further that where the price so written off is recovered subsequently either in whole or part, it shall be deemed to be the sale of goods by him in the tax period in which such price is recovered and the dealer shall make an adjustment in calculating the tax payable for the same tax period by allocating the recovered amount to the amounts stated above in the reverse order.

8. Treatment of stock brought forward during transition .- For the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 14, the amount of tax borne shall be—

- (a) where the dealer holds an invoice issued by a dealer registered under the Delhi Sales Tax Act, 1975 (43 of 1975) in respect of the opening stock which separately states the amount of tax paid under the Delhi Sales Tax Act, 1975 (43 of 1975) at the point specified under section 5 of the said Act, the amount of such tax as is allocable to the opening stock; or
- (b) in any other case, an amount calculated according to the formula-

$$F \times P \times 75\%$$

where –

F = the tax fraction,  $(r/r+100)$  [where ‘r’ is the rate of tax under the Delhi Sales Tax Act, 1975 (43 of 1975) applicable as on March 31, 2005 to the opening stock].

P = the price paid for the opening stock.

9. Credit on second hand goods purchased by a registered dealer from a resident seller not registered under the Act .- (1) No input tax credit shall be claimed on second hand goods purchased by a registered dealer from a resident seller who is not registered under the Act, unless the registered dealer has in his possession adequate proof of the amount paid for such goods in the form of an invoice or receipt signed by such resident seller containing the following, namely -

- (a) the description of the goods;
  - (b) the amount paid for the goods;
  - (c) the name and address of the resident seller; and
  - (d) the Permanent Account Number (PAN), if any, of the resident seller.
- (2) No input tax credit shall be claimed on second hand goods under section 15 without production of original tax invoice.

10. Document for availing of credit.- (1) A dealer requiring to furnish statement of trading stock and raw material under clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 20 shall furnish the same in Form DVAT 19 within seven days of his registration taking effect.

- (2) No input tax credit shall be allowed on the trading stock or raw materials held by a dealer who is registered or re-registered at the time when such registration or re-registration takes effect, unless the dealer has in his possession adequate proof of the amount of input tax paid in the form of a tax invoices issued by a registered dealer to the dealer claiming the tax credit.

The officer in charge of the appropriate Government treasury shall set his hands and seal on the said information before furnishing it to the Commissioner.
- 33. Proof of payment.- (1) On receipt of the Part B of the receipted Form DVAT-20, the Commissioner shall allow the credit of the amount shown therein, to the dealer against tax, interest, penalty or any other amount due from him under the Act.
- (2) In case the Part B of Form DVAT-20 is not forthcoming to the Commissioner or is lost, destroyed, defaced or mutilated, the dealer who claims that he had paid any amount on account of tax, interest, penalty or any other amount due under the Act, the Commissioner may require such dealer to furnish other satisfactory proof of such payment which shall be the Part C or Part D of Form DVAT-20 in respect of that payment supported by a certificate from the appropriate Government treasury that the payment shown in such Part C or Part D of Form DVAT-20 was deposited and credited to the Government account and an affidavit from such dealer that Part C or Part D of Form DVAT-20 and the certificate from the appropriate Government treasury are genuine. If the dealer fails to furnish satisfactory proof of such payment, the credit for such payment shall be disallowed by the Commissioner.

- 34. Refund of excess payment.- (1) A claim for refund of tax, penalty or interest paid in excess of the amount due under the Act (except claimed in the return) shall be made in Form DVAT-21, stating fully and in detail the grounds upon which the claim is being made.
- (2) Only such claim shall be made in Form DVAT-21 that has not already been claimed in any previous return. A claim for refund made in Form DVAT-21 shall not be again included in the return for any tax period.
- (3) The Commissioner shall issue notice to any person claiming refund to furnish security under sub-section (5) of section 38, in Form DVAT -21A.
- (4) Where the refund is arising out of a judgment of a Court or an order of an authority under the Act, the person claiming the refund shall attach with Form DVAT-21 a certified copy of such judgment or order.
- (5) When the Commissioner is satisfied that a refund is admissible, he shall determine the amount of the refund due and record an order in Form DVAT-22 sanctioning the refund and recording the calculation used in determining the amount of refund ordered (including adjustment of any other amount due as provided in sub-section (2) of section 38).
- (6) Where a refund order is issued under sub-rule (5), the Commissioner shall, simultaneously, record and include in the order any amount of interest payable under sub-section (1) of section 42 for any period for which interest is payable.
- (7) The Commissioner shall forthwith serve on the person in the manner prescribed in rule 62, a cheque for the amount of tax, interest, penalty or other amount to be refunded along with the refund order in Form DVAT-22.

- (8) No refund shall be allowed to a person who has not filed return and has not paid any amount due under the Act or an order under section 39 is passed withholding the said refund.

35. Refund of tax for embassies, officials, international and public organisations .-

- (1) Subject to sub-rule (2) of this rule, an organisation listed in the Sixth Schedule of the Act (in this rule called “the organisation”) may apply for the refund of the tax borne by it or by a qualified person as defined in sub-rule (6) on the purchase of goods once in every quarter, if-
- (a) the goods are purchased by the organisation or the qualified person from a registered dealer;
  - (b) the goods (other than petrol, diesel and other fuels) are for the official use of the organisation or are for the personal use of the qualified person as listed in the Sixth Schedule;
  - (c) the goods were purchased from a registered dealer in a single transaction recorded on a single tax invoice and the sale price of the goods covered in the transaction exceeds five thousand rupees (excluding tax paid, if any) or such other amount as may be notified; (d) such other restrictions or conditions as may be notified by the Commissioner have been satisfied.
- (2) An application for refund under section 41 shall be made by the organisation on behalf of itself and every qualified person attached to the organisation in Form DVAT-23 within a period of twenty eight days from the end of the relevant quarter covering all purchases for which the tax invoices have been issued in that quarter.
- Explanation. - For the purpose of this rule, the organisation shall be deemed to be an agent duly authorised by all qualified persons attached to the organisation to make such a claim.
- (3) A refund made to the organisation shall be deemed to be made to each qualified person through its agent duly authorised by the qualified person to receive such a payment.
- (4) Where an application for a refund is made in accordance with sub-rule (1) and the application is made in the prescribed form, manner and time, the refund shall be paid by the Commissioner within thirty days from the day when the Commissioner receives the application along with refund order in Form DVAT-22.

- (5) The amount of any refund shall be paid to a single account with a bank nominated by the organisation and any deposit made by the Commissioner to the account shall be deemed to be paid to the organisation and to every qualified person.
- (6) Subject to the restrictions and conditions notified by the Commissioner, for the purposes of this rule, a “qualified person” means a person referred to in Sixth Schedule of the Act.
- (7) Where an express term in a treaty or other international agreement to which the President or the Government of India is a party is inconsistent with the conditions in this rule, such treaty or international agreement shall prevail.
- (8) A claim for a refund of tax made under this rule shall be a composite of all the claims for a refund of tax of the organisation and every qualified person attached to the organisation.
- (9) The form shall be signed by the chief of the organisation or a person duly authorised by him. In case the form is signed by an authorised signatory, the form shall be accompanied by the letter of authorization signed by the chief of the organisation.
- (10) The organisation claiming a refund under this rule shall be required to retain all tax invoices based on which such refund is claimed for a period of one year from the date on which the refund is made.
- (11) The tax invoices filed along with the form shall be stamped by the Commissioner and returned along with the refund order in Form DVAT-22.

CHAPTER VIII
ASSESSMENTS AND ENFORCEMENT OF TAX AND PENALTIES

- 36. Assessment of tax, interest or imposition of penalty.- (1) Where the Commissioner makes a default assessment of tax under section 32, he shall record the order in Form DVAT-24 and such notice of assessment shall be served on the dealer in the manner prescribed in rule 62.
- (2) Where the Commissioner makes an assessment of penalty under section 33, he shall record the order in Form DVAT-24A and such notice of assessment of penalty shall be served on the dealer in the manner prescribed in rule 62.
- 37. Recovery of Government dues.- (1) In case of any amount recoverable in terms of sub-section (3) of section 43, the Commissioner may issue to the Collector a certificate in Form DVAT-25.
- Provided that the Commissioner may encash the security furnished by any person, if capable of being encashed simultaneously with the issue of certificate to the Collector and shall notify the Collector of the amount so realised.
- (2) The Collector shall intimate to the Commissioner the amount recovered by him together with the date thereof and provide such other details as the Commissioner may require.
- (3) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (4) of section 57, if at any time after the recovery proceedings have been commenced by the Collector, the defaulter dies, the recovery proceedings shall be continued against the legal representatives.
- (4) Any amount recoverable under Chapter VII of the Act, shall be recovered in the same manner as provided in sub-rules (1) to (3).
- 38. Continuation of certain recovery proceedings.- For the purposes of section 45, the Commissioner shall notify to the Collector any reduction of government dues in Form DVAT-26, a copy of which shall also be served on the person in the manner prescribed in rule 62.

- 39. Special mode of recovery.- For the purposes of section 46, the Commissioner shall serve on the person in Form DVAT-27 notifying the person of the requirement to pay the specified amount to the Commissioner in the manner prescribed in rule 62.
- 40. Issue of summons.- (1) A summons requiring a person –
- (a) to appear before the Commissioner;
  - (b) to produce documents to the Commissioner; or
  - (c) to appear before the Commissioner and produce documents,
- shall be in Form DVAT-28.
- (2) The Commissioner shall serve summons under sub-rule (1) in the manner prescribed in rule 62.
- 41. Procedures for sale of property held by the Commissioner .-(1) Where the Commissioner has in his possession any goods, goods vehicle, or any other property, including goods seized at any border or check-post and goods held as security for the performance of an obligation under the Act (in this rule called “the property”), which may be sold by the Commissioner in pursuance of any powers conferred under the Act to recover tax, interest, penalty or other amount due under the Act, the power of sale shall be exercised in the manner set out in this rule.
- (2) The Commissioner shall serve a notice in Form DVAT-29 in the manner prescribed in rule 62 on the person recorded as the owner of the goods in the Commissioner’s records requiring the person to redeem the property within fifteen days by tender of payment in cash of all amounts owed under the Act.
- (3) Where the person has not redeemed the property within the time specified in the form, the Commissioner may proceed to sell the property by public auction as per the following procedure:-
- (a) A report shall be prepared of the facts and circumstances in which the property is required to be sold by public auction and the Commissioner shall make a written order for sale or disposal of the property.
  - (b) The officer nominated by the Commissioner for the purpose shall cause to be published on the notice board of his office, a list of the properties intended for sale with a notice under his signature specifying the place where, and the day and hour at which, the property is to be sold and display copies of such list and notices at more than one public place near the place where the property is currently held, and the place of the proposed auction. A copy of the list and notice shall also be displayed in the office of the Commissioner. Except in exceptional circumstances, a notice for not less than seven days shall be given before the auction is conducted.

- (c) Intending bidders shall be required to deposit as earnest money, a sum equal to ten per cent of the estimated value of the property. The officer conducting the auction shall prepare a receipt acknowledging the receipt of the earnest money. Earnest money deposited by unsuccessful bidders shall be refunded to them immediately after the auction is over.
  - (d) At the appointed day and time, the property shall be put up in one or more lots, as the officer conducting the auction sale may consider fit and shall be knocked down in favour of the highest bidder subject to confirmation of the sale by the Commissioner.
  - (e) The purchaser shall pay the sale value of the property in cash immediately after the sale and he shall not be permitted to carry away any part of the property until he has paid for the same in full and until the sale has been confirmed by the Commissioner. If the purchaser fails to pay the purchase money within three days of the confirmation of sale by the Commissioner, the property shall be re-offered for auction and any earnest money deposited by the defaulting bidder shall be forfeited to the Government.
- (4) If any order directing detention is reversed on appeal, the property detained, to the extent they have not been sold before such reversal comes to the knowledge of the officer conducting the sale, shall be released or, if such property has been sold, the net proceeds thereof shall be paid to the owner of the property.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, if the property is of a perishable nature or subject to speedy and natural decay or when the expenses of keeping it in custody are likely to be high, the Commissioner may –
- (a) reduce the time stated in sub-rule (2) within which the owner may redeem the property;
  - (b) reduce the time for display of any notice; and
  - (c) accelerate the time for conducting the auction of the property.
- (6) Where property is sold under the preceding sub-rules, the proceeds of sale shall be applied in the following order –

- (a) payment of any expenses of the sale, including tax arising under the Act by virtue of the sale, and other incidental charges;
- (b) in respect of any surplus, payment of the amount of any tax, interest and penalty recoverable under the Act or the Delhi Sales Tax Act, 1975 (43 of 1975) or the Delhi Sales Tax on Works Contract Act, 1999 (Delhi Act 9 of 1999) or the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956 (74 of 1956) or the Delhi Sales Tax on Right to Use Goods Act, 2002 (Delhi Act 13 of 2002);
- (c) in respect of any surplus, on application made to the Commissioner and upon provision of sufficient proof, payment to the person who was the owner of the property; and
- (d) in respect of any surplus, in the absence of any claimant, deposited in the Consolidated Fund of the National Capital Territory of Delhi.

CHAPTER IX
ACCOUNTS, RECORDS AND AUDIT

42. Books and Accounts.- (1) The following records shall be maintained by a dealer at his principal place of business, namely:-

  - (h) Order records and delivery challans, wherever applicable.
  - (i) Annual accounts including trading, profit and loss accounts and the balance sheet.
  - (j) Bank records, including statements, cheque book counter foils and pay-in-slips.
  - (k) Cash book, daybook and ledger.
- (2) The following records shall be maintained by a dealer having elected to pay tax under section 16, namely:-

- (a) Details of the goods purchased and sold by him; and
  - (b) Cash book, daybook, ledger, invoice books and purchase vouchers.
- (3) Every owner or lessee of a cold storage, warehouse, godown or any such place, who stores goods for hire or reward shall maintain or cause to be maintained a correct and complete account indicating the full particulars of the person whose goods are stored and the quantity, value, date of arrival, date of dispatch and the proposed destination of such goods.
- (4) Every person who carries goods for reward shall maintain or cause to be maintained a correct and complete account indicating the full particulars of the person whose goods are carried, the quantity, value, the place and date of delivery of such goods, vehicle number, serial number and date of Goods Receipts (GR) note and his office copy of the same.

- 43. Records to be carried by a person in charge of a goods vehicle.- (1) The owner, driver or person in charge of the goods vehicle shall carry the Transport Receipt in Form DVAT-32, sale invoice or delivery note in Form DVAT-33, and, as the case may be, export declaration in Form DVAT-34, import declaration in Form DVAT-35 or transit slip in Form DVAT 35A.
- (2) For obtaining export or, as the case may be, import declaration in Forms DVAT-34 and DVAT-35, an application in Form DVAT 46 shall be made to the Commissioner by the user dealer.
- (3) Account of the usage of Forms DVAT 34 and DVAT 35 shall be maintained by the user dealer in Form DVAT 35B which shall be open for inspection by the Commissioner and shall be filed with the Commissioner every quarter or with every new application for obtaining Form DVAT 34 and DVAT 35, whichever is earlier.
- (4) A declaration in Form DVAT 34 or DVAT 35 shall be in three parts. Each part shall be filled and signed by consignor, the consignee and the transporter, as the case may be. The owner, driver or person in charge of the goods vehicle shall keep with him such declaration forms in duplicate while carrying the goods. He shall submit the declaration forms in duplicate at the check post or barrier. The officer in charge shall retain the original part of such declaration and shall return to the owner, driver or person in charge of the goods vehicle, the duplicate part duly verified, signed and stamped. The duplicate part of such declarations shall be furnished by the user dealer to the Commissioner along with the account of such declaration maintained in Form DVAT 35B at the time of obtaining of additional declaration forms.

- (5) Where the goods vehicle entering Delhi, is bound for any place outside Delhi and passes through Delhi, the owner, driver or the person in charge of the goods vehicle shall furnish, in duplicate, to the officer in charge of the check post or barrier, a Transit Slip in duplicate in Form DVAT-35A duly filled, signed and verified. He will obtain from the officer in charge of the check post or the barrier one copy of the Transit Slip duly countersigned. The owner, driver or person in charge of the goods vehicle shall deliver within twelve hours of its entry into Delhi, the said countersigned copy to the officer in charge of the check post or barrier at the point of his exit from Delhi.
- (6) The owner, driver or his agent or the person in charge of the goods vehicle when required to furnish security under sub-section (5) of section 61 shall furnish security in the form and in the manner and subject to the conditions specified in rule 23. The security referred to in this sub-rule shall be furnished within the time specified in the order not exceeding seven days from the detention of the goods. The Commissioner shall issue to the depositor a receipt in Form DVAT-47 acknowledging the receipt of the security.
- (7) The officer in charge of the check post or barrier detaining the goods shall make a report to the Commissioner about all the facts and circumstances of the case within twelve hours of the detention of the goods.
- (8) Where the goods detained are not released owing to the failure to furnish the security required to be furnished under sub-section (5) of section 61 within the specified time, the notified goods detained shall be sold by public auction after following the procedure as specified in rule 41.

Explanation. – For the purpose of this rule, unless the context otherwise requires, “officer in charge” of the check post or barrier” shall also include any officer or any agent as may be empowered by the Commissioner.

- 44. Issue of Duplicate Tax Invoice.- (1) Where a purchasing dealer claims to have lost the original tax invoice, the selling dealer may, upon a request made by the purchasing dealer accompanied by an undertaking-cum-indemnity in Form DVAT-36, provide a copy of such last tax invoice clearly marked as a ‘duplicate’ and shall furnish a copy of such undertaking cum indemnity along with his return for the tax period in which such ‘duplicate’ tax invoice has been issued.

(2) Except when a tax invoice is issued under sub-section (1) of section 50, if a dealer sells any goods exceeding twenty five rupees in any one transaction to any person, he shall issue to the purchaser a retail invoice in terms of sub-section (4) of section 50.

45. Credit and debit Notes.- For the purposes of section 51, a credit note and a debit note shall be signed by a person authorised to sign the return to be filed under the Act and shall contain the following particulars, namely:-

- (a) the name, address and registration certificate number of the selling registered dealer;
- (b) the name and address of the purchaser and his registration number where the purchaser is a registered dealer;

- 50. Conditions subject to which an officer may be authorised to investigate offences punishable under the Act.- The Commissioner shall not authorize any officer for the purpose of sub-section (1) of section 92 who is lower in rank than an Assistant Value Added Tax Officer.

CHAPTER XI
DISPUTES

51. Authority to whom objection may be made.- An objection under sub-section (1) of section 74 shall lie to Special Commissioner, Additional Commissioner, Joint Commissioner, Deputy Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, Value Added Tax Officer and Assistant Value Added Tax Officer:

Provided that the Commissioner may, by notice published in the official Gazette, fix the jurisdiction of the respective authority on the basis of territory or pecuniary limit or nature or class of objections or on any other basis that may be deemed appropriate by the Commissioner.

52. Making of objections.- (1) Every objection shall be made in Form DVAT-38 accompanied by a copy of the notice of assessment, order or decision against which the objection is being preferred and shall be submitted in triplicate with one copy to the Commissioner or the Value Added Tax authority against whose order the objection has been preferred.

(2) Every objection shall contain a clear statement of facts, precise grounds of objection and the relief claimed.

(3) Where an objection is made after the time limit prescribed under sub-section (4) of section 74, it shall be accompanied by a statement in Form DVAT-39, showing the reason for the delay in making the said objection.

(4) Where fresh evidence is sought to be produced, the objection shall be accompanied by a memorandum of the evidence sought to be produced, stating clearly the reasons why such evidence was not adduced before the Value Added Tax authority against whose order the objection is being preferred.

(5) The objection in Form DVAT-38 shall be signed by the person making such objection or his agent and shall be presented by him or his agent to the authority in person.

(6) The authority shall issue or cause to be issued an acknowledgement of the objection received, to the person who has filed the objection, specifying the date of personal hearing.

- 53. Determination of objections.- The Commissioner while deciding the objection shall conduct the proceedings by examining-
- (a) the registers and records maintained by the Value Added Tax Authority against whose order or decision or assessment the objection has been preferred;
  - (b) the objection; and
  - (c) any other document, information or report, which, in his opinion, is relevant to decide the objection;
- and may –
- (i) admit any further oral or documentary evidence that is relevant to the matters in dispute; and
  - (ii) allow the applicant to present its arguments in person, by a representative authorised to appear before any authority under section 82 and by submission in writing, if any.
- 54. Hearings.- (1) Unless the person making the objection has expressly waived the personal hearing, the Commissioner or the Value Added Tax Authority (together referred to in this rule as “authority”) deciding the objection shall pass the order on the objection after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to such person or his authorised representative.
- (2) The authority deciding the objection may before deciding the objection, cause such further and other enquiry or direct such enquiry to be held by the authority against whose decision the objection has been preferred, as the authority deciding the objection may consider necessary. The authority against whose order or decision or assessment the objection has been preferred may be represented by a person authorised by him.
  - (3) The authority deciding the objection shall not at any hearing, allow the objector to argue or present any ground of objection not specified in the objection unless the authority is satisfied that omission of that ground therefrom was not wilful or unreasonable.
- 55. Intimation of outcome of objection.- The decision of the Commissioner or the Value Added Tax Authority deciding the objection shall be intimated to the applicant in Form DVAT-40 and shall be served on the person making the objection in the manner prescribed in rule 62.

- 56. Delay.- (1) A notice for the purpose of sub-section (8) of section 74 shall be in Form DVAT-41.
- (2) The notice shall be signed by the person making the objection or his authorised signatory and shall be served in person on the Commissioner or the Value Added Tax Authority deciding the objection.
- 57. Refund on account of objection.- The procedure for the refund of any amount due in consequence of an order made pursuant to an objection, or any other proceeding under the Act, shall be that provided in rule 34.
- 57A. Filing of appeal before Appellate Tribunal. – (1) Every appeal shall be presented in the form of a memorandum of appeal which shall be-
- (a) in Form DVAT –38A when the appeal is against an order of assessment;
- (b) written on a standard watermarked judicial paper when the appeal is against any other order or decision.
- (2) Every memorandum of appeal shall be accompanied by a fee of fifty rupees in the form of court fee stamps.
- (3) Every memorandum of appeal shall contain a clear statement of facts, precise ground of appeal and relief claimed.
- (4) Every appeal shall be filed in triplicate and shall be accompanied by three copies (at least one of which shall be certified) of the order appealed against and three copies of the order of the original authority. Copies, other than those that are certified, shall be attested by the appellant or his authorised representative as true copies.
- (5) An appeal to the Appellate Tribunal shall be signed by the appellant and shall be presented by him in person or by his authorised representative to the Appellate Tribunal or to an officer authorised by the Appellate Tribunal.
- (6) Where an appeal is made after the expiry of the period specified in sub-section (2) of section 76, it shall be accompanied by a petition duly verified setting forth the facts showing sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within the said period.
- (7) Where the appeal is made without payment in full of the tax or any penalty in respect of which the appeal is being preferred, the memorandum of appeal shall be accompanied by a petition duly verified stating the facts on which the appellant relies to satisfy the Appellate Tribunal to entertain his appeal without such payment or on payment of such lesser amount as remains unpaid.

(8) Every appeal where fresh evidence is sought to be produced, shall be accompanied by a memorandum of evidence sought to be produced, stating clearly the reasons why such evidence was not adduced before the authority against whose order the appeal is being preferred.

57B. Furnishing of security.- Where the Appellate Tribunal orders an appellant to furnish security under the proviso to sub-section (4) of section 76, the appellant shall furnish the security in any one of the modes specified in rule 23 of these rules, as the Appellate Tribunal may direct and subject to the conditions specified therein.

57C. Hearing of the appeal or application. – (1) If the Appellate Tribunal does not reject the appeal summarily, it shall fix a date for its hearing and send a notice to the appellant and the Commissioner. The Appellate Tribunal may, before deciding the appeal, hold such further enquiry or direct it to be held by the authority against whose decision the appeal has been preferred, as may appear necessary to the Appellate Tribunal. The Commissioner may be represented by a person authorized by him.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal shall not, for the first time receive in evidence on behalf of the appellant, an account, register, record or other documents, unless it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from producing such documents before the authority against whose order the appeal has been preferred.

(3) The Appellate Tribunal shall not, at the hearing of appeal allow the appellant to go into any ground of appeal not specified in memorandum of appeal unless the Appellate Tribunal is satisfied that omission of that ground therefrom was not wilful or unreasonable.

58. Determination of specific questions.- (1) Any person desiring that a question be determined by the Commissioner pursuant to section 84, shall furnish a concise statement of the case in form DVAT-42 stating therein precisely the question to be determined, and indicating clearly the basis for the question. Where the person applying for the determination so desires, the statement may separately include a draft ruling for the Commissioner's consideration and shall be accompanied by a demand draft in favour of “The Commissioner Delhi Value Added Tax” for the amount of the fee as prescribed in Annexure 1 to these rules.

- (2) The statement of the case referred to in sub-rule (1) shall contain a declaration that the question submitted for determination of the Commissioner does not arise from any order passed under the Act or under the Delhi Sales Tax Act, 1975 (43 of 1975), or the Delhi Sales Tax on Works Contract Act, 1999 (Delhi Act 9 of 1999), or the Delhi Sales Tax on Right to Use Goods Act, 2002 (Delhi Act 13 of 2002), which were in force before the commencement of the Act and shall be signed by the person or his agent.
- (3) The Commissioner, after considering all the relevant material produced before him in this connection, shall determine the question or questions referred to him.
- (4) The decision of the Commissioner shall be prepared and notified to the applicant in writing.
- (5) An order determining the questions shall be made by the Commissioner within a period of six months from the date of submission of the question, failing which, the provision of sub-section (6) of section 84 shall apply.

CHAPTER XII
MISCELLANEOUS

- 59. Tax Deduction At Source.- (1) Any person deducting tax under section 36A shall deposit the tax in the appropriate Government treasury against the challan in Form DVAT-20 within the time prescribed in section 36A, along with interest for delayed payment.
- (2) Person who has deducted the tax under sub-section (1) of section 36A shall issue a certificate for deduction of tax in Form DVAT-43. Such certificate shall be issued in triplicate. The person who has deducted the tax shall furnish the original copy of the certificate to the contractor within twenty eight days from the end of the month in which tax has been deducted. The second copy thereof along with proof of payment in challan Form DVAT-20 shall be attached along with the return of Tax Deduction at Source (T.D.S) as prescribed in sub-rule (4) of this rule. The third copy thereof shall be retained by him for his records.
- (3) Every person responsible for making deduction of tax under section 36A shall apply for Tax Deduction Account Number (T.A.N) within thirty days from the date on which the tax was deducted or deductible in Form DVAT-44 and a Tax Deduction Account Number shall be issued in Form DVAT-45.
- (4) Every person deducting tax shall be required to file a Tax Deduction at Source (T.D.S) annual return in Form DVAT-48 within a period of twenty eight days from the end of the year in which tax has been deducted.
- 60. Rounding.- Where the Act or these rules require an amount to be calculated and the amount is not a multiple of a rupee, the amount shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee.
- 61. Printing of forms.- All forms prescribed in these rules shall be printed under the authority of the Commissioner and be obtainable from him or his authorised agent on payment of such charges, as may be specified by the Commissioner from time to time:
- Provided that any form in force before commencement of these rules and which may be specified by the Commissioner by order in writing may continue to be used for such period as specified in the said order:

Provided further that the provisions of this rule shall not apply to such form or forms as the Commissioner may specify in this behalf. It shall be open for a dealer to download such forms from the official website that may be notified by the Commissioner.

62. Service of documents.- (1) Without prejudice to the provisions of sections 96 and 97, notices of summons or orders (in this rule called a 'document') under the Act or these rules may be served by any of the following methods, namely:-

- (i) by delivering or tendering to the addressee or his agent, or to a person regularly employed by him in connection with the business in respect of which he is registered or to any adult member of his family, a copy of the notice, summons or order;
- (ii) by post:

Provided that if upon an attempt having been made to serve any such notice or summons or order by any of the above mentioned method, the Commissioner is satisfied that the addressee is evading service of notice, summons or orders or that for any other reasons, the notice, summons or order cannot be served by any of the above mentioned methods, the Commissioner shall cause such notice or summons or orders to be served by affixing a copy thereof-

- (a) if the addressee is a dealer, upon some conspicuous part of any place of the dealer's business last notified by the dealer or if the said place of business is known not to exist or is not traceable, upon some conspicuous part of the last known place of residence of its proprietor or partner or director or trustee or manager or authorised signatory or any other person authorised to receive notice on behalf of the dealer;
- (b) if the addressee is not a dealer, on some conspicuous part of his residence or office or the building in which his residence or office is located;
and such service shall be as effectual as if it has been on the addressee personally:

Provided further that where the Commissioner at whose instance the notice or summons or order is to be served, on inquiry, is satisfied that the said office, building, place of residence is known not to exist or is not traceable, he may, by order in writing, dispense with the requirement of service of the notice or summons or order under the preceding proviso;

- (iii) by sending the document by facsimile;
  - (iv) by sending the document by electronic mail;
  - (v) by sending the document by courier; or
  - (vi) in such other manner as the Commissioner thinks fit.
- (2) When the officer serving a notice or summons or order delivers or tenders a copy of the notice or summons or order to the addressee personally or to his agent or to any other person referred to in clause (i) of sub-rule (1), he shall require the signatures of the person to whom the copy is so delivered or tendered, as an acknowledgment of the service, endorsed on the original notice of summons, or order;

Provided that where the addressee or his agent or any such person refuses to sign the acknowledgment, the servicing officer shall affix a copy of the notice or summons or order on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the premises in which the addressee ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain.

- (3) When the notice, summons or order is served by affixing a copy thereof in accordance with the provisions to sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), the officer serving it shall return the original to the Value Added Tax authority which issued the notice, summons or order with a report endorsed thereon or annexed thereto, stating that he so affixed the copy, the circumstances under which he did so and the name and address of the person, if any, by whom the addressee's place of business or residence was identified and in whose presence the copy was affixed. The said officer shall also obtain the signatures or thumb impression of the person identifying the addressee's residence, office, or place of business.
- (4) When service is made by post, the service shall be deemed to be effected by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting by registered post the notice, summons or order and unless the contrary is proved, the service shall be deemed to have been effected at the time at which the notice, summons or order would be delivered in the ordinary course by post.
- (5) When the service is made through a courier, the service shall be deemed to have been effected by properly addressing, pre-paying and delivering to the courier the notice, summons or order and unless contrary is proved, the service shall be deemed to have been effected at the time at which the notice, summons or order would be delivered in the ordinary course by courier.

- (6) The sufficiency of mode of service of any notice, summons or order shall be decided by the Value Added Tax authority which issued the same.

63. Submission of documents with Commissioner.- (1) Subject to sub-rule (2), any application, return, form, or other document (in this rule called “document”) which is to be furnished, submitted or made (in this rule referred to as “submitted”) to the Commissioner under the Act or these rules shall be submitted by-

- (a) delivering the document to the Commissioner at his office;
  - (b) delivering the document to the Commissioner at any other place notified by him;
  - or
  - (c) such other means as the Commissioner may notify, including electronic means.
- (2) A document shall be treated as submitted by a person to the Commissioner if the document is submitted by delivery at a place notified by the Commissioner, once the document has been stamped with the date of receipt by the Commissioner or by any other person authorised by the Commissioner to receive the document.

64. Qualifications to be possessed by Value Added Tax Practitioner.- (1) A value added tax practitioner referred to in section 82 shall be eligible to have his name entered in the list, if –

- (a) he possesses any of the qualifications specified in rule 50 or rule 51 of the Income Tax Rules, 1962, as amended from time to time; or
  - (b) he –
    - (i) was formerly an employee of the Sales Tax Department or Value Added Tax Department;
    - (ii) held during service in the department an office not lower in rank than that of an Assistant Sales Tax Officer or Assistant Value Added Tax Officer for not less than seven years; and
    - (iii) is, in the opinion of the Commissioner, a fit and proper person to appear or act in proceedings under the Act and these rules.
- (2) A person referred to in clause (b) of sub-rule (1) shall not be eligible to appear before the authority deciding the objection on behalf of a person for a period of one year after he ceased to be an employee of the Department.

- (3) A person who wishes to have his name entered in the list referred to in clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 82, shall –
  - (a) apply to the Commissioner in writing;
  - (b) pay the fee as prescribed in Annexure 1 of these rules; and
  - (c) furnish with his application, documentary evidence of his eligibility.
- (4) The Commissioner shall maintain a list of all persons whose names are entered as per this rule.
- (5) A Certificate in Form DVAT-49 would be provided to each qualified value added tax practitioner.

65. Officers to carry and produce authorisations.- (1) Where the Commissioner wishes to appoint an officer or other person to exercise any of the powers in Chapter X of the Act, the grant of authority to exercise the powers shall be in Form DVAT-50 and shall be issued by the person empowered by the Commissioner in this regard.

- (2) The grant of authority shall –
  - (a) be limited to a period not exceeding three years;
  - (b) be to a specific person; and
  - (c) expire on the retirement, resignation or transfer of the person;Provided that an authority granted may be renewed.
- (3) Every officer or other person authorised by the Commissioner under sub-rule (1) shall –
  - (a) carry the authorization in Form DVAT-50, with him when purporting to exercise any of the powers conferred under Chapter X of the Act; and
  - (b) produce the authorization in Form DVAT-50, if requested by the owner or occupier of any premises where he proposes to exercise these powers.

66. Location of check-posts and barriers.- The check-posts and barriers set up for the purposes of section 101 shall be located at the places described in the Annexure 2 to these rules.

67. Additional Information for proper administration of the Act.- (1) Every dealer effecting sale or purchase in the course of inter state trade or commerce shall furnish a statement in Form DVAT- 51 within nine months from the end of the year.

- (2) Every transporter, cold storage or warehouse operator, or any other person shall produce such information as required for proper administration of the Act.
- (3) Where, upon the commencement of the Act, a person is deemed to have been registered under the Act pursuant to section 24, he shall furnish a statement of opening stock held by him and that has not suffered tax under the Delhi Sales Tax Act 1975 (43 of 1975) in Form DVAT-18A along with his first return to be filed in Form DVAT-16.

68. Repeal and savings.- (1) The Delhi Sales Tax Rules 1975, the Delhi Sales Tax on Works Contracts Rules, 1999, the Delhi Tax on Entry of Motor Vehicles into Local Areas Rules, 1995 and The Delhi Sales Tax on Right to Use Goods Rules, 2004 as in force in Delhi (referred to in this rule as the “said rules”), are hereby repealed.

- (2) Notwithstanding sub-rule (1), such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of the said rules or any right, title, obligation or liability already acquired, accrued or incurred thereunder.
- (3) For the purposes of sub-rule (2), anything done or any action taken including any appointment, notification, notice, order, rule, form or certificate in the exercise of any powers conferred by or under the said rules shall be deemed to have been done or taken in the exercise of the powers conferred by or under these rules, as if these rules were in force on the date on which such thing was done or action was taken.
