- (ii) a declaration, whether or not –

- (a) he manufactures or produces any goods for sale, or

- (b) he imports for sale any goods from any place outside the state.

(2) If the appropriate assessing authority is satisfied that the registrant under section 25 of the Act is not liable to pay tax under section 8, section 9, or section 10 of the Act, he shall, on application made by such registrant under sub-rule (1), cancel the registration with effect from the first day of the year following the year referred to in that sub-rule:

Provided that where the appropriate assessing authority does not cancel the registration on or before the last day of the year during which the application for cancellation of the certificate is made, such certificate shall stand cancelled with effect from the first day of the following year.

23. Procedure for registration of dealers who hold a certificate of registration under the earlier laws before repeal. - (1) Any dealer who has been registered on any day before the first day of April, 2005, and continues to be so registered under the earlier laws and liable to pay tax under those Acts on the day of coming into force of this Act, shall submit to the appropriate assessing authority particulars of his business in Form VAT-2 within thirty days for issue of a fresh registration certificate under this Act without any fee, and within a further period of ninety days with late fee of one hundred rupees, failing which he shall cease to be a dealer registered under the Act from next day following the expiry of the said period.

(2) Every dealer whose application for registration under any of the earlier laws is pending for decision before its repeal shall furnish particulars of his business in Form VAT-2 within thirty days to the appropriate assessing authority, failing which he shall be deemed to have failed to apply for registration under the Act.

(3) Application in Form VAT-2 furnished under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall be signed as in the case of application in Form VAT-1.

(4) Where the assessing authority is satisfied, if necessary after making an enquiry, that the information furnished to him in Form VAT-2 is complete and correct and that the dealer is genuine, he shall issue to the dealer a certificate of registration in Form VAT-RC which shall be valid from the appointed day, and where the assessing authority finds otherwise after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the applicant, he shall by order in writing specifying reason(s) thereof, reject the application.

(4) Where the assessing authority is satisfied, if necessary after making an enquiry, that the information furnished to him in Form VAT-2 is complete and correct and that the dealer is genuine, he shall issue to the dealer a certificate of registration in Form VAT-RC which shall be valid from the appointed day, and where the assessing authority finds otherwise after affording a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the applicant, he shall by order in writing specifying reason(s) thereof, reject the application.

24. Registration Certificate.- (1) Every certificate of registration shall bear a unique number to be known as TIN (tax payer's identification number).

- (2) The name of every dealer to whom a registration certificate has been issued under this rule shall be entered along with other particulars of his business in a register in Form VAT-3.
- (3) The appropriate assessing authority shall issue to the registered dealer an attested copy of the registration certificate for every branch enumerated therein.
- (4) The registration certificate shall be displayed prominently at the place of business and at each branch to which it relates.

CHAPTER-IV

Procedure for return, prescribed dates and manner of furnishing returns/payments of taxes, interest, penalty

25. Quarterly returns to be furnished. - (1) Every dealer registered under the Act shall furnish quarterly return in Form VAT-4 to the appropriate assessing authority concerned for the quarter ending June 30th by 31st July, for the quarter ending 30th September by 31st October, for the quarter ending 31st December by 31st January, and for the quarter ending 31st March by 30th April, failing which a notice in Form VAT-29 shall be served.

(2) Monthly returns.- Notwithstanding the provisions under sub-rule (1), the appropriate assessing authority may, for reasons to be rendered in writing, fix a monthly 'return period' for a registered dealer. The monthly return shall be furnished to it by the thirtieth day of the month following. The dealer filing the return shall himself assess the tax payable on the taxable turnover of sales or purchases for each return period.

26. Each return which is required to be furnished under these rules shall be incomplete unless accompanied with lists, statements, declarations, certificates, challans and documents mentioned therein or which are required to be filed with the return under these rules. The return shall be signed by the dealer himself or by his authorized agent or representative as in the case of application for registration specified under sub-rule (2) of rule 7.

27. Revised return. - A dealer who desires to submit a revised return under sub-section (3) of section 28 of the Act on account of any omission or error in the return, shall do so in Form VAT-4 with explanatory note within two months, and pay the tax or additional tax as per the revised return with interest.

28. Annual return. - (1) Every registered dealer shall submit an annual return in Form VAT-5 giving detailed information in respect of gross purchases including exempt and non-creditable purchases separately, gross sales including export sales, inter-State sales and consignment transfers separately, total tax due, including interest and penalty less tax credit during the year and tax payable and paid showing treasury voucher numbers. The annual return shall be furnished within two months of the close of the year to which it relates.

(2) Where a dealer, casual dealer or any other person upon whom a duty or liability has been cast to file return under the Act fails to file return as required without sufficient cause, the appropriate assessing authority shall serve on him a notice in Form VAT-6 calling upon him to show cause by such date ordinarily not less than ten days, why a penalty should not be imposed upon him, and shall decide the case after considering objections filed or submissions made, if any, before him.

29. Computation of Taxable Turnover. - A VAT dealer who wishes to make any of the following deductions from his gross turnover shall, when so required by an assessing authority, produce before it the documentary evidence in support thereof as mentioned against each, namely:-

Deduction	Documentary Evidence
(a) Turnover of sales made outside the State, of goods purchased outside the State	Purchase and sale invoices and documents relating to receipt and delivery of goods outside the State.
(b) Turnover of sales made in the course of inter-State trade and commerce to a dealer registered under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956, or to a Government Department.	Sales invoice, declaration in Form C or D, under CST Act, 1956, as the case maybe, and showing delivery of goods outside the State.

Note- Where the delivery of the goods outside the State is proved but declaration in Form C or D of the CST Act, 1956, is not produced, such delivery may, in accordance with the provisions of the Central Act, be deemed to have taken place as a result of sale made in the course of inter-State trade and commerce to a dealer not registered under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956.

(c) Turnover of sales made in the course of inter-State trade and commerce to any person who is not registered under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956.	Sale invoice and documents showing delivery of goods outside the State.
(d) Turnover of sales made in the course of import of goods into the territory of India	Sale invoice and documents showing constructive delivery of goods to the purchaser.
(e) Turnover of sales made in the course of export out of the territory of India within the meaning of sub-section (3) of section 5 of the CST Act, 1956.	Sale invoice, declaration in Form VAT 7 or Form H, under CST Act, 1956, as the case maybe, and showing export of goods out of India.

Note- Where the delivery of the goods outside the State is proved but declaration in under CST Act, 1956, in Form H is not produced, such delivery may, in accordance with the provisions of the Central Act, be deemed to have taken place as a result of sale made in the course of inter-State trade and commerce to a dealer not registered under the under CST Act, 1956.

(f) Turnover of sales made in the course of export of goods out of the territory of India within the meaning of sub-section (1) of section 5 of the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956.	Sale invoice, customs clearance certificate and shipping documents.

(g) Turnover of export of goods out of the State	Documents showing delivery of goods outside the State and declaration in Form F of the CST Act, 1956.
--	---

Note- Where delivery of goods outside the State is proved but no declaration in CST Act, 1956, Form F is produced, such delivery may be deemed to have taken place as a result of sale in the course of inter-State trade and commerce.

(h) Turnover of disposal of goods otherwise than by sale.	Documentary evidence showing disposal of goods otherwise than by sale.
(i) Turnover of sale of exempted goods	Sale and purchase invoices.
(j) Turnover of the return of goods sold.	Delivery-cum-debit note raised by the purchaser for the return of the goods, delivery note(s), if issued separately by the purchaser at the time of returning the goods, and original sale invoice(s) in respect of the goods.
(k) De-escalation in the price of goods sold.	Original sale invoice(s), agreement of sales providing for de-escalation in the price of goods and debit note issued by the purchaser of goods in respect of de-escalation.

30. Computation of Output Tax, Purchase Tax, Input Tax and Tax Due. - (1) Output tax in respect of a VAT dealer for a tax period is the aggregate of tax calculated on the sale of taxable goods made by him in the State during the tax period. It shall be represented by total of entries in column (h) in the VAT Account Register (sale side) prescribed in rule 61.

(2) Any goods purchased within the State by a VAT dealer on the sale of which to him no tax is levied or paid under the Act and such goods are used or disposed of by him during a tax period in the circumstances that no tax is payable by him under the Act on them, or the goods manufactured there from are sold in the course of export of goods out of the territory of India, shall be liable to pay tax on the purchase of such goods at the rate(s) specified under sub-section (4) of section 12 of the Act.

(3) Input tax in respect of a VAT dealer is the aggregate of tax paid in respect of goods purchased within the State from other VAT dealer(s) on tax invoice(s) during the tax period, which shall be the aggregate of entries made in column (g) in the VAT Account Register (Purchase side) prescribed in rule 61 in respect of the said period.

Illustration – The aggregate of entries made in column (h) in the VAT Account Register (Sale side) in respect of a tax period in case of a VAT dealer D is Rs.10,000. D exported goods worth Rs.1,00,000 out of the State (sent for sale on consignment) during the said period. These goods were purchased by him within the State from VAT dealers on tax invoices over a span of past three tax periods on payment of tax aggregating to Rs.8000. Therefore D's net dues during the tax period shall be Rs. 10,000 – Rs. 8,000 = Rs. 2,000.

(4) The tax due required to be paid by a VAT dealer for a tax period shall be the output tax, calculated under sub-rule (1), plus the purchase tax, calculated under sub-rule (2), minus the input tax, calculated under sub-rule (3). Arithmetically put:

$$\text{Tax due} = \text{Output tax} + \text{Purchase tax} - \text{Input tax}.$$

31. Payment of Tax. - (1) Every dealer required to file either quarterly or monthly return shall pay the full amount of tax payable under the Act on the sales value received during each month of every quarter within 21 days from the expiry of each such month and shall, before furnishing return for that quarter, pay the balance of the full amount of tax due according to such return.

(2) Special provisions for payment of tax in the month of March.- Notwithstanding the provisions contained in sub-rule (1), every registered dealer shall pay on or before the 28th day of March every year the full amount of tax leviable under the Act on the sales or purchases made by him during the period commencing on and from the first day of March to the 25th day of March every year, being a part of the prescribed return period, and such dealer shall pay by the prescribed date the balance of the full amount of tax for the month or months to which the payment relates to in sub-rule (1).

CHAPTER-V
Payment of Tax and Other dues,
Input Tax, Credit Notes, Debit Notes, and Refund

32. Input tax credit. - A registered dealer shall be allowed to take credit (hereinafter referred to as Input Tax Credit) of tax paid on any inputs or capital goods for use in business or furtherance of business received in stock on or after the 1st day of April, 2005 in terms of the provisions of Section 17 of the Act.

Provided that while paying tax the Input Tax Credit shall be utilized only to the extent such credit is available on the last day of the month for payment of tax relating to the month.

33. Documents and accounts. - The input tax credit shall be taken by the registered dealer on the basis of any of the following documents, namely:- a tax invoice issued by-

- (i) a manufacturer for inputs or capital goods from his factory or from his depot or from the premises of the consignment agent or from any other premises from where the goods are sold; by or on behalf of the said manufacturer;
- (ii) an importer from his depot or from the premises of the consignment agent of the said importer if the said depot or the premises, as the case may be, is registered in terms of provisions of the Act;
- (iii) a wholesaler, supplier, distributor, or retailer registered under the Act.

34. Input tax credit in respect of capital goods received in a factory at any point of time in a financial year shall be taken only for an amount not exceeding fifty percent of the tax paid on such capital goods in the same financial year:

Provided that the balance of input tax credit may be taken in any financial year subsequent to the financial year in which the capital goods were received in the factory of the manufacturer.

Provided further that input tax credit in respect of inputs or capital goods purchased from a registered dealer holding a valid certificate of registration which are intended for the purposes mentioned in sub-section (4) of section 17 of the Act shall be allowed only if such dealer has maintained records indicating the fact that the inputs or capital goods were supplied from stock on which tax was paid by the producer of such inputs or capital goods, and only an amount of such tax on pro-rata basis has been indicated in the records maintained by him.

Explanation- “input” means all goods except light diesel oil, high speed diesel oil and motor spirit commonly known as petrol used in relation to any manufacture of final products or execution of works contract whether directly or indirectly and whether contained in the final product or transfer of the goods as goods or in any other form or not, and includes lubricating oils, greases, cutting oils, coolants, goods used as paint, or as packing materials, or as fuel, or for generation of electricity or steam used for manufacture of final products or for any other purpose, within the factory of production.

35. No input tax credit shall be allowed on capital goods that are used exclusively in the manufacture of exempted goods.

36. No input tax credit shall be allowed in respect of that part of the value of capital goods which represents the amount of tax on such capital goods, which the manufacturer claims as depreciation under Section 32 of the Income Tax Act, 1961 (Act 43 of 1961).

37. No input tax credit shall be allowed on purchases made in the following circumstances:

- (i) All purchases made from dealers who are either a casual traders under the Act or registered retailers paying presumptive tax under section 21 of the Act;
- (ii) Interstate purchases i.e. purchases made from outside the State of Nagaland;
- (iii) Purchases not made on Tax Invoice prescribed under section 55 of the Act.
- (iv) Tax charged to such dealer must have been paid by the selling dealer to the state. In case selling dealer defaults in depositing the tax collected on the goods sold to any dealer, the purchasing dealer in this case shall not be eligible to avail the said input tax credit.

38. Documents and accounts. - (1) A registered dealer availing input tax credit shall maintain proper records in which the relevant information regarding the serial number and date of document on which input tax credit is availed, VAT registration number and name of the selling dealer, description and value of goods, input tax credit availed, input tax credit utilized for payment of tax on output shall be recorded. The burden of proof regarding the admissibility of input tax credit shall lie upon the person taking such credit.

(2) The registered dealer availing input tax credit shall submit to the assessing authority an abstract statement of VAT account as prescribed in rule 61.

39. The input tax credit shall be availed on the basis of an invoice, bill or challan issued by the selling dealer of input on or after the appointed day, indicating clearly the serial number of document, date of issue, description and value of the inputs, the tax paid or payable, registration number and address of the selling dealer.

40. The registered dealer availing input tax credit shall take reasonable steps to ensure that the input tax in respect of which he has availed the credit as indicated in the statement of input tax credit, has been paid.

41. The registered dealer availing input tax credit shall be deemed to have taken reasonable steps if he satisfies himself about the identity and address of the selling dealer issuing the invoice on the basis of which the input tax credit is availed, and that details regarding description and value of inputs received by him have been furnished correctly in the invoice.

42. A registered dealer availing input tax credit shall issue a 'statement of Input Tax Credit' in Form VAT-8 annexed to these rules along with the return in Form VAT-4.

43. Input Tax Credit on Transitional Stock in case of dealers registered under the Act with effect from the appointed day. - (1) Opening stock of goods used for the purpose of manufacture, resale, or execution of works contract, but other than capital goods held as on the appointed day purchased on or after the 1st April, 2004, will be eligible for input tax credit:

Provided that goods for which no price has been paid or is payable, will be excluded from the opening stock.

Provided further that the dealers who fail to comply with the provisions of section 8 of the Act shall not be eligible for input tax credit under this rule.

(2) Only goods that have suffered tax under section 5 of the Nagaland Sales Tax Act, 1967, prior to the appointed day and are taxable under the Act, will be eligible for input tax credit.

(3) Inputs purchased on or after 1st April, 2004, for manufacturing, and the finished or semi-finished goods so manufactured using such inputs, and remaining in opening stock as on the appointed day, will be allowed input tax credit:

Provided that while ascertaining the value of raw materials, semi-finished or finished goods, accepted method of accounting shall be followed by a dealer, and the Commissioner or the officer authorized under sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Act shall be satisfied that there is consistency in the method of determination of valuation by such dealer.

(4) Input tax credit shall be available on tax paid or payable on leased rentals accrued on or after the appointed day, on goods acquired by a dealer on lease before the appointed day.

(5) The claim for input tax credit should be supported by proof regarding payment of tax by the purchasing dealer.

(6) The rate to be considered for credit will be the actual rate at which taxes were paid at the time of purchase, irrespective of the rate under the Act.

(7) No input tax credit will be given in the first three months, and the credit will be given in equal instalments in the next six months.

(8) The registered dealer shall, within 30 days from the appointed day, submit to the appropriate assessing authority a list of goods lying in stock with all the particulars in the following manner:

CLOSING STOCK INVENTORY

as on _____

Name of the dealer:

Address:

Registration Certificate No:
[Under the Nagaland Value
Added Tax Act, 2005].

Rate of Tax	Serial No.	Name and address of the Selling dealer	Registration Certificate No. (if any) of the selling dealer.	Invoice/Bill No. with date	Item	Quantity	Purchase Value (including tax) (Rs.)	Aggregate purchase price for individual tax rates [sub total of (9)]
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)	(6)	(7)	(8)	(9)
Grand total _____

Certified that the details given above are true to the best of my knowledge.

(9) Where the value of goods declared in the closing stock inventory referred to in sub-rule (8) exceeds twenty lakh rupees, the same should be certified by a practicing Chartered Accountant enrolled as a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

(10) If any stock eligible for input tax credit under sub-rule (1) is sold within the first three months, documents such as cash memo, bill or tax invoice evidencing purchase and sale of such stock should be preserved by the registered dealer for inspection and verification by the appropriate assessing authority or any other officer appointed under sub-rule (1) of rule 3 of the Act.

(11) Opening stock of semi-finished goods or goods of a manufacturer will be eligible for input tax credit.

(12) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (6) and elsewhere in the rules, where no tax under section 5 of the Nagaland Sales Tax Act, 1967, was charged by a manufacturer registered under that Act on sale of goods manufactured by him, no input tax credit on opening stock of goods as on the appointed day of such goods will be available to the buyer of such goods.

(13) Recovery of input tax credit.- Where the input tax credit has been wrongly availed of or utilized or tax has not been paid by the selling dealer for any reason whatsoever, such credit along with the interest shall be recoverable from the person availing such input tax credit, and the provisions of sections 42 and 43 of the Act shall apply mutatis mutandis for effecting such recoveries.

44. Manner of Payment. - (1) The dues required to be paid under the Act shall be paid into a designated Bank by challan in Form VAT-9.

(2) Challans shall be filled in quadruplicate. The 'original' copy duly signed as proof of payment shall be returned to the dealer or the tenderer, and the other three copies i.e., the duplicate, triplicate and the quadruplicate copies shall be retained by the Bank.

45. (1) The duplicate copy retained by the Bank shall be transmitted to the Superintendent of Taxes of the area on the day following the date of payment.

(2) Every designated Bank shall send the Scroll along with the triplicate and quadruplicate copies of challans to the concerned Treasury officer on the day following the date of payment, showing therein the amount received on the previous day. The Scroll shall contain the scroll numbers and dates, the names of the dealers and the amount paid by each. The Treasury Officer shall, on receipt of the Scroll from the Bank, allot Treasury Voucher Number and send advice list to the Superintendent of Taxes of the area or to the Zonal Assistant Commissioner of Taxes showing the same details as given in the Scroll by the 5th day of the following month.

(3) Any amount due under the Act may also be paid by submitting a refund adjustment order in Form VAT-27 or interest payment order in Form VAT-27(1) to the assessing authority.

46. For the purposes of this rule, if the dealer deposits the tax by cheque, the date of realization of the cheque by the bank designated by the State Government for this purpose shall be deemed to be the date on which tax has been paid:

Provided that for the tax payable during the month of March, the tax shall be paid on or before the 28th day of March.

47. (1) Daily Collection Register-Maintenance. - There shall be maintained in the office of the officer-in-charge of each district/ward a daily collection register wherein the particulars of every challan received in proof of payments made under the Act or the rules shall be recorded.

(2) Demand and Collection Register-Maintenance: The officer in charge of each district/ward shall maintain a demand and collection register in respect of dealers registered under the Act showing the returns filed, assessments framed and payments made under the Act or these rules by each dealer.

48. Manner of deduction and deposit of the amount towards payment of tax for works contract and supplies deducted at source. - (1) Where a deduction of an amount towards payment of tax in respect of any works contract or supplies is made at source by a Government, authority or person under sub-section (3) of section 92 of the Act from any dealer, the person making such deduction for such Government, authority or for himself shall, within ten days from the expiry of each calendar month, deposit through challan into a Government Treasury or designated Bank the total amount so deducted from one or more dealers or contractors during the preceding month.

(2) The challan shall specify the name, designation and address of the person making deposit of the amount referred to in sub-rule (1) and mention therein the department of the Government or the authority or the person on whose behalf such deposit is made.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) and sub-rule (2), where deduction of any amount towards tax is made and the person making such deductions adopts “Public Works system of accounting”, such person shall, within ten days from the expiry of the calendar month during which such deduction is made, incorporate the sum so deducted in the “monthly divisional account statement” and send the said statement to the Accountant General, Nagaland, for transfer of the sum to the account under the head of account 0040-Sales Tax, and after such transfer, it shall be deemed to have been deposited under sub-section (3) of section 92 of the Act.

(4) On transferring the deposit of the amount referred to in sub-rule (3), a copy of the “monthly divisional account statement” showing the total amount of tax deducted during such month as referred to in the said sub-rule shall be sent to the Commissioner within 45 days from the date immediately following the date of expiry of the calendar month during which deduction is made, and the other copy shall be retained by the person who deposits such amount.

(5) Issue of Certificate of Deduction of the amount towards payment of tax on Works Contract and Supplies:- The person who deducts and deposits any amount towards payment of tax in respect of works contract and supplies under sub-rule (1) or (3) shall, within 15 days from the date of deposit, issue a certificate of deduction in Form VAT-32 in respect of such dealer.

(6) Scroll for deposit or transfer of the amount deducted at source to be sent to the Commissioner.- The person who deducts the amount towards payment of tax in respect of works contract or supplies under sub-section (3) of section 92 of the Act and deposits such amount under sub-rule (1) or transfers such amount under sub-rule (3) as the case may be, shall, within 45 days from the date immediately following the date of expiry of the calendar month during which such deduction is made, send to the Commissioner –

- (a) a scroll in Form VAT-33 in respect of the amount specifying therein, inter alia, the amount deducted and deposited under sub-rules (1) or (3), as the case may be, from each dealer or contractors during such month, the name and address of each dealer or contractor from whose payment such amount has been deducted, the number of the Certificate of Registration under the Act of such dealer or contractor, and the serial number and date of the certificate of deduction issued to each dealer.
- (b) a copy of certificate of deduction issued to each dealer, and
- (c) a copy of the receipted challan evidencing payment of the amount deposited during each month into the Government Treasury or designated Bank, or a copy of the monthly divisional account statement referred to in sub-rule (4).

49. Determination of interest. - (1) For the purposes of this rule the tax liability shall be deemed to have been discharged only if the amount payable is credited to the account of the State Government by the due date.

(2) If the dealer fails to pay the amount of tax by the due date, he shall be liable to pay the outstanding amount along with an interest at the rate of two per cent per month or parts of a month proportionately computed, starting with the first day following the due date till the date of actual payment:

Provided that till such time the amount of tax outstanding and the interest payable thereon are not paid, it shall be deemed that the dealer is in default and the consequences of penalties as provided under sub-section (5) of section 42 and thereafter sub-section (6) of section 42 of the Act shall follow.

Calculation of interest.

Illustration 1.- X, a dealer, fails to pay tax amounting to Rs.31 lakhs payable by 20th March. X pays the amount on 30th March.

The default has continued for 10 days. The interest payable by X is computed as follows:

2% of the amount of default for 10 days = 2% of Rs.31 lakhs x 10/30 = Rs.20,666.

Illustration 2.- Y, a dealer was liable to pay tax of Rs.5 lakhs for the month of May payable by 20th June. Y pays only Rs.4 lakhs by 20th of June. Thus Y has defaulted in respect of Rs. 1 lakh. Y pays the balance amount on 15th of July.

The default is for 25 days. The interest payable by Y is computed as follows:-
2% of the amount of default for 25 days = 2% of Rs.100000 x 25/30 = Rs.1,666.

Illustration 3.- For a dealer who has defaulted payment of tax of Rs.10000 for 2 months and 5 days interest is computed as follows:-

2% per month of the amount of default = 2% of Rs.10000 x (2+5/30) = Rs.433.

CHAPTER-VI

Procedure for Assessment

50. The tax liability of a dealer shall be the difference between the output tax and input tax. In case there is excess of input tax in a month or a year, the same shall be carried over to the next month or year, as the case may be.

51. Self-assessment. - (1) Where a registered dealer has furnished the return with the required documents and tax due has been paid -

- (a) the return shall be treated as an assessment of the tax payable as specified on the return on the day it is furnished;
- (b) the return is deemed to be a notice of the assessment under the hand of the assessing authority;
- (c) the notice referred to in clause (b) is deemed to have been served on the dealer on the day it is deemed to have made the assessment; and
- (d) such deemed assessment shall be made for each return period.

(2) Scrutiny of returns.- Notwithstanding the assessments referred to in sub-rule (1), the appropriate assessing authority may, on the basis of information contained in the return filed by the dealer under sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) of rule 25 and rule 28, as the case maybe, scrutinize the correctness of the tax assessed by the dealer himself. For this purpose, the assessing authority may require the dealer to produce any account, documents or other evidences as may be deemed necessary for such scrutiny. The assessing authority is not required to pass any order of assessment if on such scrutiny, the return is found correct and complete.

(3) Escaped assessment.- If on scrutiny under sub-rule (2) the assessing authority is of the opinion that any lawful tax has escaped assessment or has been under-assessed, he may pass such order of assessment as he may deem fit after due notice in Form VAT-30. A copy of the order passed along with demand notice in Form VAT-31 shall be served upon such dealer for payment within twenty one days of the date of notice.

(4) Provisional assessment under section 35.- (a) For the purpose of assessment under section 35 of the Act, the appropriate assessing authority shall serve a notice upon the dealer fixing a date of hearing not less than 15 days from the date of service of such notice.

Provided that the appropriate assessing authority may, at his option, fix the date of hearing even before the expiry of 15 days from the date of service of notice, where he is of the opinion that granting of a time longer than that fixed by him to the dealer may be detrimental to the interest of the State Revenue.

(b) After giving the dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard, the appropriate assessing authority shall assess to the best of his judgment the amount of tax payable by a dealer in respect of that period, recording the reasons thereof in writing, and shall pass an order imposing penalty as he deems fit.

(c) The appropriate assessing authority shall serve a notice of demand upon the dealer in Form VAT-31, fixing a date not less than 15 days to make the payment of the amount of tax assessed and penalty imposed, if any, under section 35 of the Act.

(5) Audit Assessment. - (a) For the purpose of audit assessment, audit shall be performed by VAT Auditors as a team. Such team of Auditors may consist of one or more Inspectors, Superintendents, Assistant Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, as the Commissioner may deem fit.

(b) The audit team may be of the following types:

- (i) Assistant Commissioner, Superintendent and Inspector of Taxes with Assistant Commissioner as its leader:
- (ii) Deputy Commissioner, Assistant Commissioner, Superintendents of Taxes and Inspector of Taxes with Deputy Commissioner as its leader. The members of the team as stated above may, wherever necessary, take the assistance of the Inspectors of Taxes for making cross verification of documents such as bills, invoices or way bills etc.
- (iii) Where a registered dealer is selected for audit, the concerned officer who will audit the records of such dealer shall require the dealer to produce books of accounts and relevant documents as may be specified before him on the date and time specified in the notice, not earlier than 15 working days from the date of issue of such notice.
- (iv) On completion of audit, the audit team shall send a copy of the audit report to the concerned dealer, the assessing authority and to the Commissioner.

(c) The audit report drawn by an audit team –

- (i) headed by an Assistant Commissioner shall be scrutinized by a Deputy Commissioner.
- (ii) headed by a Deputy Commissioner shall be scrutinized by an Additional Commissioner.

(d) The assessing authority shall, on receipt of the audit report, see whether there is any adverse finding in the report and if there is any, he shall proceed to take action under sub-section (7) of section 36 of the Act.

(6) Selection of dealers for audit.- (a) The Commissioner shall, under sub-section (1) of section 33 of the Act, select and assign to the VAT auditors at the beginning of a financial year certain number of registered dealers in the manner laid down under clause (c).

Provided that the Commissioner may, upon receipt of information or otherwise, select those dealers for audit who, according to him, are required to be audited.

(b) The audit referred to in clause (a) may be made for a period or for aggregate of periods.

(c) Number of registered dealers to be selected for audit shall be as under:

Dealers	Percentage of dealers to be audited.
(i) having turnover of sales of less than rupees fifty lakhs.	Not more than 25%
(ii) having turnover of sales of fifty lakhs or above but lesser than rupees five crore.	Not more than 50%
(iii) having turnover of sales of rupees five crores and above	Not less than 100%
(iv) enjoying lump sum payment of tax at a compounded rate under section 53 and in any other case-	Not more than 10%
(v) claim of input tax exceeding fifty thousand rupees in a year;
(vi) claim of refund exceeding twenty five thousand rupees in a year;
(vii) claim of sales made in the course of inter-state trade and commerce or in the course of export of goods out of the territory of India or in the course of import of goods into the territory of India exceeding ten lakh rupees in a year;
(viii) fall in gross turnover or payment of tax compared to the last year;
(ix) claim of sale, purchase or consignment of goods not matching with the accounts of the other party to the transaction;
(x) exceptional cases in which ratio between purchases and sales or between input tax and output tax or between stocks and sales is disproportionate to the general trend in the trade or industry;
(xi) cases based on definite intelligence about evasion of tax;
(xii) cases selected at random;
(xiii) cases of any particular trade or trades which the Commissioner may select; and
(xiv) cases in which the dealer fails to complete the return(s) in material particulars after being given an opportunity for the same.
(d) Upon selection of registered dealers, the Commissioner shall send the list of registered dealers so selected to the audit team for conducting audit, and the list shall also be displayed for public viewing at the office of the appropriate assessing authority of dealers so selected.

52. Best judgment assessment. - Assessment orders passed under the provisions of section 37 of the Act on the best of judgment shall be made in Form VAT-10 after considering any objection and evidence adduced by the dealer. The appropriate assessing authority shall assess the amount of tax and impose penalty under sub-section (2) of section 37 of the Act in addition to the amount of tax so assessed.

53. In the proceedings under sub-rules (3), (4) and (5) of rule 51, and rule 52, the time and date of passing the order of assessment shall ordinarily be within seven days after the date of last hearing, and copy thereof along with the order of assessment in Form VAT-10 and challan in Form VAT-9 (hereinafter referred to as documents) shall be delivered to the dealer or his representative after obtaining acknowledgement of the receipt of the said documents.

Chapter-VII

(4) The assessing authority shall keep a regular record of such authentication in the file of each dealer for utilization at the time of inspection of his accounts or stocks.

63. Report of Audit. - A report of audit of the accounts of a dealer required to be furnished under section 58 shall be in Form VAT-17 accompanied by a statement of particulars in Form VAT-18, and shall be furnished to the appropriate assessing authority at the end of the month after expiry of six months within which the audits have been completed for the year.

64. Maintenance of Registers. - There shall be maintained in the office of the officer in charge of each district the following registers-

(1) Registration certificate issue register in Form VAT-19

(2) Daily collection registers in Form VAT-20

(3) Demand and collection register in Form VAT-21

(4) Refund register in Form VAT-22

Any other register as may be required and so specified by rules in any of the rules.

65. Check Post. - (1) When a check post is set up on the thoroughfare of road, barriers may be erected across the thoroughfare of road in the form of contrivance to enable traffic being intercepted, detained and searched.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (4) of section 66 and section 67 of the Act, the officer empowered shall be the Assistant Commissioner of Taxes (Check post), and any officer appointed under the provisions of the Act and for the time being on duty at the check post shall be deemed to be the officer-in-charge of such check post and all provisions of the Act shall apply accordingly.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 66 of the Act, the following shall be the documents so far as they are applicable to each case:

- (i) Declaration of imports in Form VAT-23 (Challan Inward) for bringing or receiving goods from outside the State to any place in the State;
- (ii) Bill of sale in Form VAT-24 (Challan Outward) for dispatch of goods by him from any place in the State to any other place in or outside the State.
- (iii) Transit Pass in Form VAT-25 together with consignment note, invoice, sale bill or documents of like nature in respect of taxable goods exceeding the prescribed quantum or value dispatched from any place outside Nagaland and bound for any place outside Nagaland for counter-signature and endorsement of the authority before whom such declaration is to be produced, evidencing exit from Nagaland of the vehicle transporting the same taxable goods:

Provided that transit pass shall not be required to be furnished in respect of exempted goods exclusively carried in a vehicle. The transit pass shall be filled in by the owner or person in charge of the goods, or owner or driver or person in charge of the goods carrier himself.

(4) The declaration forms under clause (i) and clause (ii) of sub-rule (3) shall be printed under the authority of the State Government and shall be machine numbered or bear a printed serial number. These shall be available with the issuing offices of the Department for issue to the dealers against payment at such price which the State Government may fix from time to time. The Commissioner may, with the approval of the Government, issue from time to time detailed instructions for issue of blank declaration forms to the dealers, their use, return after use, verification and disposal, surrender of issued forms to the assessing authorities and maintenance of record in relation thereto. Such instructions shall be binding on the issuing agencies, assessing authorities, officials and the dealers.

(5) The said declaration shall be in parts. Each part shall be filled in and signed by the consignor, the consignee and the transporter as the case maybe. Any movement of goods valued at rupees ten thousand or more in a single transaction relating to a dealer - whether as a seller, purchaser, consignor or consignee, shall be accompanied by a declaration in original. The duplicate part of the used declaration in Form VAT-24 (Challan Outward) and the original of the used declaration in Form VAT-23 (Challan Inward) shall be furnished by the user-dealer to the assessing authority along with the tax return filed by him, unless other arrangements for receipt of the used declaration is made in the instructions referred to in sub-rule (4). The used declaration forms shall be arranged in the order of date of receipt from the issuing authority and then in the order of their continuous serial number before their return to the assessing authority.

(6) The declaration in Form VAT-24 (Challan Outward) shall be so filled in by hand that the reverse of the original and the obverse of the duplicate and the counterfoil of the declaration form bear the carbon imprint of the original.

(7) If a dealer fails to furnish the account of declaration forms obtained by him or fails to surrender the blank declaration forms when so required by the assessing authority, he shall be liable to be assessed to tax to the best of its judgment by such authority and while doing so, such authority may presume that all declaration forms as aforesaid have been used by him for purchase and sale of goods and for this purpose it may estimate the value of goods purchased or sold per declaration form at an amount consistent with the facts and circumstances of the case.

(8) The dealer to whom the declaration forms have been issued shall be responsible for their proper custody and use. If a declaration form, whether unused or filled in is lost while in the custody of the dealer to whom it was issued, or in the custody of the dealer to whom it was sent, or in transit, the former shall report the loss to the assessing authority and shall furnish in respect of one or more such declaration form(s) so lost, an indemnity bond in the prescribed format to the assessing authority for such sum as the said authority may having regard to the circumstances of the case, determine:

Provided that where more than one declaration forms are lost, the dealer may furnish one such indemnity bond to cover all the lost declaration forms.
